

Transition into the private sector of INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Herzing University recognizes the knowledge and experience military information technology trained veterans and active duty service members bring to the IT field. That is why Army, Navy, and Air Force IT trained applicants may be awarded 28 transfer credits and advanced standing in our Bachelor of Science in Information Technology Degree (BSIT). Leverage your military experience with network systems, routers and servers toward a bachelor's degree. This is a fast-paced program with many resources to support you.

HERZING®
— UNIVERSITY —

CALL NOW 1-888-NEW CAREER
Herzing.edu info@herzing.edu

Army, Navy & Air Force Service Members get credit toward your IT degree

Herzing University recognizes the knowledge and experience that you gained in the military with network systems, routers and servers. That is why Army, Navy, and Air Force veterans and active duty service members can receive up-to 18 transfer credits and advanced placement in our Associate of Science in Information Technology (ASIT). Qualified applicants join our program in the second year of the two-year program. This is a fast-paced program with many resources to support you.

HERZING®
— UNIVERSITY —

CALL
NOW

1-888-NEW CAREER
Herzing.edu info@herzing.edu